

Acknowledging the Enslaved: Witness Stones Project West Hartford
Installation Ceremony
First Church and Old Center Cemetery
September 26, 2018
9:30-11:15

Remembering George and Jude
Remembering the Goodmans and the Sedgwicks Come to the ceremony and hear Conard students tell the stories of these men who were enslaved Witness the stones placed in the Old Center Cemetery

Run-away from the subscriber of Hartford West-Division, on the night following 6th instant, a Molatto servant man named JUDE, about 21 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches high, had on a claret colour'd coat and waistcoat, and a light colour'd waistcoat, one pair of check'd linen trowsers, two pair tow ditto, a pair good leather breeches, one white shirt, two check'd ditto, and is supposed to have a forged pass. TWENTY DOL-LARS Reward and all necessary charges will be paid to any person who shall take up and return said Fellow to STEPHEN SEDGWICK.
N. B. All Masters of vessels are forbid carrying off said fellow.